(4) Representation of Sophisticated Investor Status

I represent that I am a sophisticated investor as defined under section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1993, as amended (definition provided below). I am willing to sign a document attesting to my sophisticated investor status before I invest in Breezopoly, LLC and I will provide documentation to establish my accreditation if so required. "Sophisticated investor" shall mean any person who comes within all of the following categories, or who the issuer reasonably believes comes within all of the following categories, at the time of the sale of the securities to that person:

(1) The investor should be able to hold his investment for an indefinite period of time and have sufficient net worth to sustain a loss of his entire investment in the event such loss should occur.

(2) The investor must have, alone or with his purchaser representative, such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that he/they is/are capable of evaluating the merits and risks of any investment contemplated.

(3) The investor represents that he has made other investments of a similar nature to any contemplated now or in the future and, by reason of their business and financial experience and of the business and financial experience of those persons he has retained at advise him with respect to any investments contemplated now or in the future, has acquired the capacity to protect his own interest. He will carefully evaluate his financial resources and investment position and the risks associated with any investment and acknowledgment that he is (will be at the time of investment) able to bear the economic risks of any contemplated investment now or in the future.

By signing this document, I certify that I meet the criteria listed above necessary for being designated as a sophisticated investor.
